

NARRATION PRACTICE EXERCISE- DAY-1

Narration Practice Exercise | Assertive Sentence | Day-1

Narration Practice Exercise | Assertive Sentence | Day-1. Hello friends, in this post, you will get ten questions of direct-indirect speech along with their answer and explanations. These are the questions that are very much important for exams of SSC like CGL, CHSL, MTS, CDS, NDA and competitive exams. For the very basic all the questions are explained and you will get benefited from these questions of narration.

After reading this post, you will get to how to change the indirect speech of assertive sentences. To me, the more you practise the more you get such questions and understand the concepts.

Let's start...

Q.1. He says to me, "I am your student and you are my teacher."

Ans. He tells me that he is my student and I am his teacher.

Explanation:- If the reporting verb remains in the present or future tense, the tense of reported speech does not change. Only pronoun change is applied according to the 123/SON rule.

Q.2. He said to me, "I am your student and you are my teacher."

Ans. He told me that he was my student and I was his teacher.

Explanation:- Since the reporting verb is in the past tense so 'Said to' has been changed into 'Told' all the general rules are applied.

Q.3. She said to Mohan, "I like you because you are good at speaking English."

Ans. She told Mohan that she liked him because she was good at speaking English.

NARRATION PRACTICE EXERCISE- DAY-1

Explanation:- Since the reporting verb is in the past tense so 'Said to' has been changed into 'Told' all the general rules are applied. If the reporting speech has a Noun as its subject or object, it is not carried in the indirect speech rather the related pronoun is used. In the sentence, Mohan is used as the object so all the change should be done keeping in mind that Mohan=He.

The same rules are applied in the below questions

Q.4. She said to the manager, "I have come to you because I am in hard need of money."

She told the manager that she had come to him because she was in hard need of money.

Q.5. She said, "I am glad to be here this evening."

She said that she was glad to be there that evening.
